PASSES & ENTRY FEES

GENERAL RULES GOVERNING LIVESTOCK EXHIBITION

(Special Rules Will Be Found Pertaining to the Respective Breeds of Livestock)

Rule 1. Entries in all Livestock Departments close September 7 (except as otherwise specified) and must be filed with Entry Department by that time. Entries must have a U.S. Postmark not a postage meter stamp. Beef, Dairy Cattle, Goats and Sheep entered should be in place as specified in the Schedule of Events and released accordingly.

Rule 2. . On all entry forms: If the form is incomplete or incorrectly completed it will be rejected, refused, and returned.

Rule 3. Application for stalls and pens must be made to the State Fair of Louisiana, naming breed of animals and number to be exhibited. No stalls or pens will be reserved without the required stall fee, which must accompany entry. Stalls and pens will be assigned by the Livestock Director and the State Fair of Louisiana reserves the right, through its management, to determine the number of animals to be entered by any one firm or individual at the 2017 State Fair of Louisiana.

Because of limited space the livestock director reserves the right to limit space per exhibitor. Entry fees do not dictate stall/pen spaces. Exhibitors will only receive proper space for each animal delivered to The State Fair of Louisiana, regardless of the number of entries made for the show.

Rule 4. State Fair gate admission photo I.D.'s will be issued only to official Livestock Superintendents and Volunteers, Assistants, 4-H Club Agents and Vocational Agriculture teachers directly responsible for 4-H and FFA livestock exhibits. Photo I.D.'s may be obtained on application at the CREDENTIALS OFFICE LOCATED AT THE ENTRANCE ON FAIR STREET.

Rule 5. LIVESTOCK EXHIBITOR TICKETS
Livestock exhibitor passes will be issued to all Open Show exhibitors on the following basis and will be available in the CREDENTIALS OFFICE upon arrival. Additional passes in excess of the allotted number will not be issued but may be purchased at $10.00 each.

Rule 8. Any animal that is exhibited in open class is subject to payment of regular charges of stalls and WRITING PRIOR TO ENTRY CLOSING DEADLINE. NO REFUNDS OF $5.00 OR LESS.

PREMIUM CHECKS: PLEASE NOTICE ALL PREMIUM CHECKS HAVE A 60 DAY EXPIRATION. PLEASE ADHERE TO THIS POLICY AS THE STATE FAIR OF LOUISIANA MUST CLOSE OUT THIS ACCOUNT BY JANUARY 1, 2017. EXPIRED CHECKS WILL NOT BE RE-ISSUED.

Rule 9. Junior exhibitors who wish to enter their animals in the open classes may do so, upon payment of fees as applies to the open classes, and provided the entry is filed by September 7. Late entries will be accepted September 8 thru midnight September 21 at double the regular entry fee. Junior exhibitors must comply with all rules and regulations as applies to open classes. Failure to comply will bar the exhibitor from participating for premiums, which may be awarded by the judge in any Department of the Fair.

Rule 10. No breeding animal can be entered or exhibited unless it has been recorded in the recognized book of records for its respective breed, and exhibitors must produce the certificate of registry at the request of the superintendent in charge any time during the Fair. Name and registry number of sire and dam must be given for animals under six months of age.

Rule 11. Animals composing a herd or group need not be named in application for entry, but exhibitor must indicate the herd or group in which he wishes to exhibit. The herd or group must consist of animals entered and shown in the individual classes and their names and numbers must be reported to the Superintendent when the class is called. No animals will be passed upon by the judge or awarded a premium until such requirements have been complied with.

Rule 12. No premiums will be paid on any animal for which proper entry has not been made before closing of entries. No substitution of any animal will be allowed after the entries are officially closed, except as specified.

Rule 13. All animals must be entered in the name of the owner and the title of ownership of the exhibitor shall show on the registration certificate at the time of exhibition. There shall be no dual ownership in the Junior Division. Animals must be registered in one person's name. All entries of animals must specify the owner's name, its name, sex, registry number and description. The record number of each animal must be given on the entry blank; otherwise it cannot compete for premium offered. A breeder is defined to be the owner of a female at the time of service. All entries must be made on regulation entry blanks. Any exhibitor entering an animal in any other than the name of the bona fide owner or owners, or showing an animal in a lot or class for which it is not eligible may, at the discretion of the Board of Directors, be barred from further showing, and any or all of the premiums previously awarded may be forfeited.

Rule 14. No exhibitor will be allowed to show more than one entry for herds or groups exception in “Get of Sire” and “Produce of Dam,” and then only when entries are by different sires and out of different dams. No exhibitor will be permitted to show more than two animals in an individual class unless otherwise stated. Single animal may be exhibited as one of a pair, herd or group. All animals must be pre-entered and exhibited in a condition satisfactory to the awarding judges.

Rule 15. Exhibitors when called are expected to produce their stock promptly. Stock must be in the ring within ten minutes after the class is called. Any exhibitor failing to comply with the orders or instructions of the Manager or Superintendent will thereby annul and cancel all entries and forfeit such prizes awarded him as the State Fair Management may see fit to withhold, and exhibitor may be barred from further showing during the State Fair.

Rule 16. Exhibitors shall show their animals at such times and places as may be directed and shall furnish such information concerning their stock as may be required and in case of refusal to obey this rule, any or all premiums may be forfeited. Any exhibitor having an animal which will not be shown must notify the Superintendent of the fact before the class is called.

Rule 17. Special care will be taken that no animal having disease of any character of having been exposed to disease 30 days prior to the Fair will be admitted into the grounds at any time during the Fair and the management will refuse unloading privileges to any stock having disease.

Rule 18. Exhibitors must keep their stalls open and stock uncovered between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. each day of the exhibition.

Rule19. All attendants or persons leading or driving an animal into the judging arena, shall be neatly attired or in uniform, and must be kept neat and clean throughout the show.

Rule 20.Animals must be tied in areas designated by the management. Violation of this rule may result in forfeiture of any premium money awarded.

Rule 21. Entries of animals in any division are subject to the special rules, if any, of the respective breed associations as pertain to dental inspections.

Rule 22. Care of stalls and pens — Exhibitors are required to keep their tack area, stalls, aisles and exhibits in a neat condition at all times.

Rule 23. NURSE COWS FOR BEEF CATTLE, BOTH BREEDING AND STEERS IN THE OPEN AND JUNIOR SHOWS, MAY NOT BE ON THE STATE FAIR OF LOUISIANA GROUNDS, IN ACCORDANCE TO RULES OF THE INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF FAIRS AND EXPOSITIONS AND THE AMERICAN BREED ASSOCIATIONS.
