#1 2 Alphabet Sentences (Ages 6 and Under Only)

The quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dog.
Jack's man found exactly a quarter in the woven zipper bag.

#2 Quote (Ages 7 to 10)

Letters, these seemingly commonplace little signs, taken for granted by so many, belong to the most momentous products of creative power. These forms, which we take in with our eyes a million times each day, embody the highest skill within their small compass. They are abstract refinements of the creative imagination, full of clarity, movement and subtlety. They combine two characteristics which must be inseparable: the precision of mathematical laws and the expressiveness of the animated stroke.

#3 Quote (Ages 11 and older)

Handwriting: That action of emotion, of thought, and of decision that has recorded the history of mankind, revealed the genius of invention, and disclosed the inmost depths of the soulful heart. It gives ideas tangible form through written letters, pictographs, symbols, and signs. Handwriting forms a bond across millennia and generations that not only ties us to the thoughts and deeds of our forebears but also serves as an irrevocable link to our humanity. Neither machines nor technology can replace the contributions or continuing importance of this inexpensive portable skill. Necessary in every age, handwriting remains just as vital to the enduring saga of civilization as our next breath.
