BONNER COUNTY FAIR

It is time to get ready for the Bonner County Fair

August 9-13

Agriculture, Livestock Shows, Entertainment, New Contests, Games and more!

This year come to the fair and support our Awareness Days!

Tuesday Suicide Awareness Day , Wednesday Heart Disease Awareness, Thursday Cystic Fibrosis Day, Friday Domestic Violence Awareness Day, Saturday Cancer Awareness Day.

Pre-Fair is a mini fair created to educate students in Bonner County about agriculture and the annual county fair. The first Pre-Fair had 362 students attend the two day event. In 2015, with the approval of Shawn Woodward superintendent of Lake Pend Oreille School District #84 and Co-coordinator Jody Russell materials were provided to schools in Bonner County and stations were set up for students to visit, with over 500 students in attendance and 1179 exhibits .

This year, the main exhibit building was set-up as a mini fair with over 3000 thousand exhibits displayed and judged. Funding was provided with grants received from the Community Assistance League, Farm Bureau Federation, Bonner County and Forestry Committee and additional funding from the Fair Board. Buses arrived at 8:30 am on Thursday and Friday with students and teachers from grades 3rd-5th.

Maps were distributed and each classroom assigned a station to start at. Stations lasted 20 minutes than groups rotated to clockwise. Stations: U S Forest Service, Bonner/Boundary County Cattlewomen, Idaho Forest Group, Carter Country Farm and Feed, 4-H , Bonner County Master Gardeners, Farm Bureau Federation, Molly the Milking Cow, Farm Animals and on Thursday a Wagon Rides from the Western Pleasure Guest Ranch and on Friday Robin McNall Ross taught students how to bottle feed baby lambs.

During lunch, in the indoor arena was a Fire Prevention presentation. At 12:15 students loaded the buses with their goodie bags. Section 2 began at 12:30 pm with Kindergartners-2nd graders. They too attended stations and had a visit from Smokey Bear. Students especially loved the time they had to look at all the exhibits and locate their exhibits to see what award they had received.

We are grateful to all the volunteers that conducted the stations, Elaine Linscott and Lu Swisher for stuffing over 850 goodie bags, our staff Bob Snider, Gary Spurgeon, Sheena Fiedler, and Fair King Alex Job for setting up the exhibit area, and guiding students to stations.

This year, Commissioners Bailey and Sudick attended and Idaho House 1-B Sage Dixon who assisted at the Farm Bureau Federation station on Friday.

When the Pre-Fair program was just an idea, I didn't realize how successful it would become. Dedicated and support from the organizations and businesses that manned the stations, volunteers, our staff, and Jody Russell who co-coordinator the event and made arrangements with teachers, transportation, and numerous other duties, the Pre-Fair educated students to the true meaning of agriculture and what is the heart of the annual Bonner County Fair. RL

June 11, July 30, August 21 and September 18

In 2016, the Bonner County Fair Board will be accepting applications for additional members for the Junior Advisory Board.

The board's purpose is to offer valuable input to the Bonner County Fair Board about what teens would like to see at the Bonner County Fair and to promote and participation in the fair through outreach efforts to area high schools while developing leadership skills for the future. The Fairboard is hoping to have representation from each High School and would like to receive the applications as soon as possible. Keep in mind the following: Terms of the Representatives commence in February 2016 and run through February 2017. Members of the Junior Advisory Board shall follow duties set forth by the Bonner County Fair Board.

8 Healthy Tips for Natural Bug Repellants

What do you do when you want to enjoy a nature-filled summer or vacation in a malaria-prone area, but won't use DEET?

Luckily, there are nontoxic alternatives for making bugs, well, bug off! So when it comes to pesky mosquitoes and your fear of Lyme disease, West Nile, and Malaria, you can go boldly where bugs are and enjoy nature, while avoiding insects with the following nontoxic, natural bug repellents

1. Cover Up: To keep the mosquitoes at bay, use your common sense and cover up as best as possible. That means long shirts, long pants, hats, socks, and shoes that cover your entire feet for you and the kids when sitting around a campfire or walking through mosquito invested areas.

2. Stay Away from Standing Water: Mosquitoes like moist, damp areas, particularly at dusk and after dark. So whatever you do, steer clear of standing water, such as birdbaths, stagnate ponds or lakes, water features that don't have a filter, or standing puddles of water. The best thing you can do is dump them out so they don't draw mosquitoes.

3. Apple Cider Vinegar: Mosquitoes love the blood of humans and animals, but they are often "turned off" biting by certain foods. Luckily, apple cider vinegar is one of those foods that mosquitoes seem to avoid. So, naturally, if you want to shun the blood suckers, start consuming a tablespoon of organic apple cider vinegar each day. You can drink it in a glass of water or mix it with olive oil to use as a tasty salad dressing.

4. Citronella Oil: Try spritzing yourself and your clothing with essential oils such as lemon balm, commonly known among mosquito-haters as citronella.

5. Lavender Oil: Another method for battling bugs is to wash with an infused soap before spending time in the great outdoors. Combine 10 to 15 drops of lavender essential oil with a natural soap, for instance liquid Castile soaps are best, and wash thoroughly.

6. Rose Geranium Oil: Equally great as a mosquito repellent for humans and pets, rose geranium oil, can be applied directly to clothing or collars (for doggy friends). Just use a drop or two as the smell might be a bit overpowering until you get used to it and can increase the dose.

7. Natural Insect Repellent Sprays: Luckily, if you don't have essential oils on hand at home, you can purchase "ready-made" herbal insect repellents at your local health food store or even order it online. Just be sure to seek out all-natural, DEET-free, non-chemical, non-toxic, and hypoallergenic sprays to ensure the spray is non-chemical.

8. Make your Own Insect Repellent: Alternately, you can choose to make your own homemade insect repellent. Not only is it cheaper than purchasing a bottle off the shelf, but you can be confident what's in your mixture if you make it yourself. I use a mixture of 2 tablespoons of vegetable oil, a bit of Aloe Vera gel (1 tablespoon will work purely so you don't dry out your skin), and 10 to 15 drops of essential oil—I stick to citronella or peppermint to make mosquitoes bug off!

Timberfest

Timberfest was held on June 4th. Carson Bosworth and other professional loggers put on an exhibition that displayed competition in standard logging events: Cross Cut Back, Hot Saw, Axe Throw, Under-hand Cut, Self Saw, Springboard Chop, Birling, and Pole Climbing. World famous Wood Carver from Denmark carved three pieces that were donated for the auction. Tug of war teams competed for the title with Idaho Forest Group merged as the winning team. Later in the day kids made up teams and it was a fun activity. There was also a log stacking competition. Western States and Rowand Machinery brought up machinery and were on hand to talk with patrons. Fiesta Bonita, Rob's Country Snack Shack and Scott's Kettle Korn served up tasty menu's. Odom Corporation provided cold beer and beverages. A dance followed with the Devon Wade Band and a Auction. The event had a lack of attendee's, but for those that did attend, had a good time!

Thank you to Idaho Forest Group, Stimson Lumber, Pape' Machinery, Western States CAT, Rowand Machinery, Fair Board members Tim Cary, Sharon Dalton, Elaine Linscott and Monica Gunter, Lu

Swisher, Arlene Howell, McFarland's, Avista, A to Z Rentals, Ty Oliver, and many more especially our Crew Boss Eddie Gordon.

This will be the second year the Bonner County Rodeo joins both the PRCA (Professional Rodeo Cowboy Association) and WPRA (Women's Professional Rodeo Association) to bring you the best.

PRCA is the highest-paying American rodeo organization in the world. It sanctions rodeos in 37 U.S. states and 3 Canadian provinces. Its championship event is the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo. In conjunction with the PRCA event, there will also be women's barrel racing sanctioned by WPRA (Women's Professional Rodeo Association) come see the ladies race some of the fastest horses in the world. This association with PRCA allows for top riders, drawing Cowboys from Idaho, Washington, Oregon and Montana. Sandpoint is part of the Columbia River Circuit and co-sanctions with the Montana Circuit.

In 2016, we have C-5 Rodeo one of the top PRCA stock contractors, barrel man JJ Harrison, Ryan Manning and award winning bullfighter Rowdy Barry, Blake West and David Lewis Pickup Men, and PRCA announcer Al Parsons and his favorite sound person Joanie Parsons.

The goal of the rodeo committee continues to achieve a higher level of entertainment for the family and community, as well as providing a look into the heritage of the western cowboy. With all the technology in today's world, the elements of a rodeo bring us all back to the more basic, down to earth, way of life.

Miss Bonner County Rodeo
Kellee Knopp

Kellee Knopp is twenty years old and has lived in the Sandpoint area most of her life. She graduated from Priest River and continues her education at North Idaho College in Coeur d' Alene. With an associate's degree from NIC, she plans to attend the University of Idaho in the fall to pursue a career in veterinary science. Kellee spends her spare time painting, leather crafting, and horseback riding. She completed several years in pony club and was in the 4-H program for ten years. The Bonner County Fair and Rodeo is what I look forward to every summer and is always the most exciting time of the season. My horse Miracle and I have been working as a team for the last six years and we are excited for a fun summer of rodeo.

I can't wait to see you all there. Until then, happy trails!"

Miss Teen Bonner County Rodeo
Bailie Corless

Bailie Corless is 16 years old and a sophomore at Sandpoint High School. Born in Salem, Oregon, she has lived in Sandpoint for 10 years. Her parents are Brian and Jodi Corless, and she has one older sister, Kendra. Bailie's mom got her started riding horses when she was 5 years old and has loved it ever since.

She is on her high school's yearbook staff and is a member of 4-H. She enjoys playing basketball, soccer and spending time with her family. Her family has five horses, and Bailie claims most of them as hers. She will be riding Georgie in parades and rodeos, and she looks forward to seeing you all there.

"I am very excited to travel around and represent, not just our rodeo but our community as a whole."

Miss Junior Bonner County Rodeo
Sage Saccomano

Sage Saccomano, born and raised in Bonner County, she will be a freshman at Sandpoint High School this fall. Because she is allergic to horses, she only started riding a couple years ago when she became determined to make horses her priority in her life. Sage and Rocky, her appaloosa and love of her life, participate in a variety of horse fun together: 4-H with Baldy's Colored Cavalry, English, Western ,gaming, trail riding, Cowboy Dressage, and Rodeo. Sage is also very active in school including student council, volleyball, and basketball. She loves skiing, skjoring, hiking, camping, basically all sports and attending camps to help her learn more about the things she loves. She volunteers for Celebrate Life organization.

"I am honored to be an ambassador of the Bonner County Rodeo again. "

Challenge of Champions vs Tour Bull Riding

June 18 and August 12 at 7:30 pm

Mission

To Preserve the Western Heritage & Present Professional Events.

Vision

We envision offering fun, yet educational opportunities to families, community members, youth, and more that focuses on traditional bull riding and the cowboy way. We strive to keep the tradition of bull riding alive through offering an avenue for junior bullriders to perform in a safe environment, surrounded by tenured professionals. We aim to bring families together for shared experiences by ensuring our events are family friendly, while entertaining regardless of age. Last, we continuously work to provide a great return on investment to our sponsors, and the communities that host our events.

 $200.00 - Fourth • $100.00 - Fifth Place
 $1,000.00 - Outlaw • $800.00 - Small Cars

Wade Brown is the coordinator for the Bonner County Bash better known as the Fair Demolition Derby. This event continues to grow in popularity. The success of this event has lead to major improvements on the fairgrounds. Wade is adding two new classes: Small Cars and Outlaw Derby. Wade works hard to provide a high quality show and his crews teamwork, honesty, love of the sport, is shown by giving back to the community. The demolition derby continues to be electrify and stimulate a jammed -packed crowd. The smaller cars will add quickness, and extra pazazz. In between heats couples compete in an obstacle course carrying their spouse to win their weight in beer.

Notes from the Extension Office

It's that time of year again....4-H leaders and members are busy with their many projects.

We weighed in 30 4-H steer. On the 14th of May we will be weighing in many, many swine and on June 18th we will weigh the 4-H Sheep and Goats.

This year we are not having the Totally Awesome Thursday Day Camps, as we have opted to have a Cloverbud Camp instead. This camp will be held on July 12 from 9 am until 2 pm. It is for all 4-H Cloverbud members from age 5 to 7.

Suzanne Sawyer is our new 4-H Coordinator. Stop by and meet her. We also welcome Abbie Ludolph as our new summer office help. Abby has been a 4-H member and is now a 4-H leader, plus working with us here in the office.

Horse Judging will be May 7th starting at 8 am with check ins.

The 50th Annual Farm Tour is scheduled for June 16th. We will be going to Wood's Hay and Grain, Wildwood Grilling, Mountain Cloud Farm, and Bear Hill Farm. The Bonner County Cattlewomen will be serving their wonderful lunch and pies at the Clark Fork Center.

Saturday, August 13th, at 9 am

Wood's Hay & Grain, LLC

Established in 2013 by Ben & Dana Wood, Wood's Hay & Grains is a locally grown, farmer owned, full service, commercial feed mill. They saw an opportunity to fill a void in the feed market which led to their idea of making high quality feed at a low cost. They offer 17 products registered with the State of Idaho.

Bear Hill Farm

Bear Hill Farm is a fruit farm located east of Clark Fork. Leslie & Greg Brady have been growing blueberries, raspberries, strawberries, apples, pears, peaches & plums on their farm for 2 years. The farm uses only organic growing methods. The farm is open to u-pick customers or you can find their fruits at the Sandpoint Farmers Market.

Wildwood Grilling

Did we invent cooking with cedar & fire? No, far from it. The native people of the Pacific Northwest beat us to it by 1,000 years or so. But retail-ready planks? We are the originals. Our location is nothing short of historic-located on East Shingle Mill Road, our facility is the name sake of the road. This location has been in operation since 1939.

Mountain Cloud Farm

Mountain Cloud is a sustainable market farm that focuses on soil health using a no till method to produce nutrient dense food. With 25 years of small farm agriculture experience, Darren Cloud and Breigh Peterson have farmed in Vermont, Colorado and now Idaho. Currently they feed local folks through a community sup-ported agriculture program & the Sandpoint Farmers Market. You can find us on Facebook and at www.mountaincloudfarm.com
