

THE SALVATION ARMY
DFW Metroplex Command

IMPACT REPORT

DOING THE MOST GOOD®

The Salvation Army, an international movement, is an evangelical part of the universal Christian Church. Its message is based on the Bible. Its ministry is motivated by the love of God. Its mission is to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ and to meet human needs in His name without discrimination.

Dear Friends,

This is a critical point in the history of the DFW Metroplex Command. We have experienced incredible growth over the last decade. In order to take the next step, our focus this year and beyond will be to solidify our organizational infrastructure in ways that will move the effectiveness of what we do and the efficiencies we are known for to higher levels.

We want to continue to be on the cutting edge when it comes to drug and alcohol rehabilitation, homeless services, programs for at-risk youth, outreach and housing for senior citizens, compassionate care for victims of domestic violence, and our veterans program, which is rated #1 in Texas by the Veterans Administration. That means in many cases we need to upgrade our facilities and our access to technology.

We want to increasingly be the service provider of choice for people in need, as well as for thousands of volunteers, individual donors, corporations, and foundations who not only want to write checks, but who want to put their “boots on the ground” in service to others.

Thank you so very much for your support as we meet human needs in Jesus’ name here in our DFW communities.

AUSTIN

Five-year-old Austin stayed at The Salvation Army homeless shelter in Dallas. He is one of many children who stay in the shelter each year. While there, the children live in small apartments with their mothers and receive shelter, meals, toiletry items, clothes, transportation to school and back, and loving care from a compassionate staff.

ENRIKA

Enrika and her daughters, Cynthia and Katrina, came to a DFW-area Salvation Army homeless shelter when they had no place to turn. After living at The Salvation Army for eight months, the family transitioned into their own place. Enrika completed a financial-education program with The Salvation Army, allowing her to successfully manage her expenses while attending college. She became financially free, gaining hope for a bright future.

DENIESE

After a divorce, Deniese began using methamphetamines. She went to jail for possession, and then to The Salvation Army's rehab program. "The Salvation Army gave me a place to go to and get back on my feet," she said. "I have God back in my life. I have a job; I have money in my savings account. ... The Salvation Army has been a starting point for a better life."

A WORD FROM THE ADVISORY BOARD CHAIR

“The Salvation Army is involved in so many activities. Over the metroplex in the course of a year, you’ll discover that it provides more than 70 programs and services in DFW. And it’s completely non-discriminatory. They help everybody. And they are thoughtful stewards of the resources they’re given to have a major impact on people.”
