

Doug Brown, (Rough Stock Rider) native of Silverton, Oregon competed in the Saddle Bronc and Bull Riding events at St. Paul over twenty years, from the mid-1960s to the mid-1980s. Doug is the 1969 PRCA World Champion Bull Rider. He married our 1964 SPR Queen, Darcy Dunson, and has stayed connected to St. Paul, including serving as an official judge at the St. Paul Rodeo. He continues along the rodeo trail, while representing the Justin Boot Company, an official PRCA national sponsor.

Jimmie Cooper (Timed Event Cowboy/Cowgirl) Monument, New Mexico ranks in the top 100 PRCA money earners of all time. Jimmie was the 1983 Steer Wrestling Champion at St. Paul and won our all-Around prize in 1983, 1985, and 1986. This feat earned him permanent possession of the fourth President's Trophy presented in our rodeo's 70-year history. Jimmie is the 1981 PRCA World Champion All-Around Cowboy. He continues to compete in rodeo; we expect to see him return to St. Paul this year.

Bob Tallman (Contract Act/Personnel) Weatherford, TX has announced the St. Paul Rodeo 15 times since 1988 and doesn't intend to stop now. In 2004, Bob was inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame in Colorado Springs. He has announced National Finals Rodeo for eighteen years and was named PRCA Announcer of the Year seven times. He has graced most of the premier events in the sport with his voice, command of information, and showmanship. Bob's life has taken him from Nevada to Oregon to Texas, where he now resides with his wife, Kristen.

Steve Coleman (Board/Committeeman), Molalla, Oregon grew up in a rodeo family in St. Paul and continues to farm and ranch in the area. As a contestant, he won the Bareback Riding event here in 1980. First elected to the SPR Board of Directors in 1979, Steve served as President from 1988-1990, and continues to be an integral part of SPR as Chute Boss and Livestock Director. In 2003, Steve was selected by the PRCA as Justin's Committeeman of the Year, an honor he graciously shared with our entire membership. His connection in the rodeo world and his expertise with livestock are invaluable resources for the St. Paul Rodeo. His wife, Cathy, and his children are all rodeo enthusiasts. His mother, Maureen, entered our Hall of Fame in 2000.

Donna Smith (General Membership), St. Paul, Oregon was a mainstay of the St Paul Rodeo Ticket Committee beginning in 1953, chairing it for 40 years, until her retirement in 1997. Donna served on the Rodeo's Board of Directors from 1989 through 1997, including three years as Vice-President. Along with her husband, Bill, a 33 year SPR director, Donna lived and breathed St. Paul Rodeo. They raised their family in the western lifestyle, and their children continue the tradition today. Their son Bill is the current President of the St. Paul Rodeo and daughters, Cheri and Lisa are SPR members. Donna's father-in-law, William M. Smith, was the first President of the St. Paul Rodeo.
