CELEBRATING 125 YEARS, FAIR SAYS “LET’S PARTY!”

This year the Central Washington State Fair is celebrating its 125th birthday. In celebration of the milestone, fair organizers are going to be putting on an extra special event come late September. As an invite to everyone to come help celebrate, this year’s Fair theme is “Let’s Party”

“This year’s Fair is going to be one big birthday celebration,” said Fair president and general manager Greg Stewart. “We’re throwing a party and we want everyone to come!”

Stewart said plans for the 125 celebration have been underway since last year and fairgoers will find some fun new attractions, foods, rides and exhibits, along with many Fair favorites.

Some entertainers have already been announced for this year’s Fair including LeAnn Rimes, Montgomery Gentry, and comedians Williams and Ree. More entertainers will be announced in the coming weeks.

There are just four more days to buy your all-new “Super Pass,” good for Fair admission all ten days of the Fair! The passes are $25 each and will only be sold through Friday, March 31.
