SHOW RULES:

LDGA & STATE FAIR BAYOU CLASSIC GOAT SHOW 2017
SHOW CHAIR-PERSON: MONICA HARRINGTON
SHOW SECRETARY: GAYLA PRIMEAUX
JUDGES: SCOTT HORNER & JUSTIN BASSETT
NOVEMBER 10, 11 & 12

This show is sanctioned by the American Dairy Goat Association and their rules shall govern. The junior, Senior Doe and Buck open shows are separately sanctioned for LaManchas, Nigerian Dwarfs, Nubians, Saanens, AOPs and Recorded Grades.

The original certificate of registration is required on all animals. Faxed application stamped received from ADGA will only be accepted for animals less than six months of age and must be within 30 days of show day Certificate papers must be presented at check in.

Animals entered MUST BE REGISTERED WITH ADGA.

All animals in the ADGA Youth Show must be registered in the Youth Name or all the Family Names, but youth's name must be listed on papers. ADGA/AGS Youth show for exhibitors 18 years or younger and the animal may be in the youth or family's name as long as the youth's name is listed on the papers. Youth must be included on Family Membership and reside at address of registration. ADGA or AGS animals with any adult listed on the paperwork will be ineligible to be counted toward any youth highpoint awards, if awarded.

Only animals registered in a Youth's name will be eligible to earn points for Youth Premier Breeder. If more than one youth is named on the registration certificate, ONE Youth shall be nominated at Check In to earn points. If no name is nominated, selection will be up to the Show Committee.

The show order is subject to change at the Judge's and Show Chair's discretion.

The show times are: Youth Show, Friday 5:00 pm following Youth Showmanship. Saturday and Sunday shows 9:00 am.

Nigerian Dwarfs: At the Discretion of the judge: All animals will be measured as they enter the ring. Over height animals will not be allowed to show. They are also dual sanction with ADGA & AGS.

NO DOGS allowed in the barn or in any area where goats are being loaded or unloaded.

No baiting of animals is allowed in the show ring (use of treats, feed, scents, bottles, or any substance or device to enhance the goat's behavior in the show ring).

It is expected that exhibitors respect the animals and property of others.
Parking along the road next to the side of the barn is reserved for cars and trucks. ALL trailers must be parked in designated parking spaces in the trailer parking lot. Do not block the doors into the barn. Do not block the roads/fire lanes around the barn. Do not use extension cords to run power from the barn to your trailer.

If you require electricity or water for your trailer, park in the RV parking on the fair grounds. Information about the availability and fees for RV spaces may be found at http://www.statefairoflouisiana.com

It is the responsibility of each winning exhibitor to ensure the accuracy of any forms; the Show Committee cannot be held responsible for loss of any win or championship leg.

All animals must be individually identified on a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection and originate from herds or areas not under quarantine. The Certificate of Veterinary Inspection for goats will require clinical inspection by an accredited veterinarian within 30 days prior to date of entry to exhibition grounds. All sexually intact goats must be identified with an individual Scrapie Flock of Origin Identification tag or by an official tattoo registered with the USDA (to register, call 1- 866-USDA-TAG), and the complete ear tag number or complete ear and/or tail web tattoo number must be listed on the Certificate of Veterinary Inspection. If you use tattoos instead of scrapie tags, complete numbers from both ears (complete tail or flank numbers) must be listed on the Certificate of Veterinary Inspection. For those of you crossing state lines be sure to satisfy any special requirements that might arise. Check with your vet.

PLEASE NOTE: Any animals with lumps or abscesses or otherwise ill in the opinion of the show committee, will be quarantined and not allowed to show with all fees being forfeited. The LDGA nor its officers or the State Fair of Louisiana will be responsible for the health, any resulting illness, or possible death of any animal.

Class schedule is posted on the State Fair of Louisiana website and the LDGA Face book page.
