The North Texas State Fair Association is a volunteer supported, 501(C) (3) non-profit organization that preserves and promotes western heritage and values. The North Texas Fair & Rodeo contributes to the quality of life in the City of Denton, Denton County, and throughout the North Texas Area. This is done through a first class nine day fair & Rodeo, year round facilities, and various community and youth oriented programs and events. The North Texas State Fair Association strives to preserve and promote an understanding of the agricultural industry. The North Texas State Fair Association is true and committed to its mission of supporting Youth, Agriculture, and Community. All revenues generated are reinvested into various programs, scholarships, and facilities.

Liability Statement
The North Texas Fair & Rodeo will in no case be responsible for and loss, injury, or damage done to, occasioned by, or arising from any animal or article exhibited. The Exhibitor, or Owners shall indemnify and hold harmless the North Texas State Fair Association against all legal or other proceedings in regard thereto, as well as damage or injury to any other person or property, caused by the exhibitor or exhibitor’s animals, or arising in any way or connected with the exhibition of the animal. The exhibitor accepts full and complete responsibility for actions of his or her animals and property, and releases and holds harmless the North Texas State Fair Association from all legal liability, both personal and property including injury and/or death or any other damage whatsoever.

- Bedding
  No Outside Shavings allowed. Shavings & Pellets available for purchase in Livestock Office.

- Fans
  Electric fans will be permitted, but must not block walking aisles. Generators are allowed.

- Grooming Chutes
  Chutes are allowed, but must not block walking aisles.

- Pets
  Absolutely NO PETS are allowed on the fairgrounds. Assistance Dogs will be allowed with proper identification. This identification should be brought to the LIVESTOCK OFFICE immediately upon arrival. Copies will be made for our files.
  As per Human Resources Code, Title 8, Chapter 121:
  Sec. 121.005. Responsibilities of persons with disabilities. (a) A person with a disability who uses an assistance animal for assistance in travel is liable for any damages done to the premises or facilities by the animal. (b) A person with a disability who uses an assistance animal for assistance in travel or auditory awareness shall keep the animal properly harnessed or leashed, and a person who is injured by the animal because of the failure of a person with a disability to properly harness or leash the animal is entitled to maintain a cause of action for damages in a court of competent jurisdiction under the same law applicable to other causes brought for the redress of injuries caused by animals.

- Show Arena Privileges
  No person other than the one holding the animal will be allowed in the show ring during the time of the judging except the Superintendent, Judge, Official Reporter, and required Ring Men. Except for exhibitors with special needs, this rule will be rigidly enforced.

- Health Certificate
  All Out of State Cattle are required to have a Health Certificate executed by a licensed Veterinarian.

- Show Order
  The Superintendent, and/or the Judge, has the right to change any show order, as deemed necessary before or during any specific livestock show.

- Protest
  All protest must be in writing and accompanied with a deposit of $100.00, which will be forfeited if the protest is not sustained. Such protest must state plainly the cause of complaint or appeal, and must be delivered to the Superintendent immediately after the occasion resulting in the protest. Any protest of eligibility regarding age of an animal, must be filed with the Superintendent 2 hours before judging begins.
  All animals must be in place according to the Livestock Show Schedule.

- There are no pre-assigned stalls. First Come, First Served.

- Jr. Heifer exhibitors may stay over for the Open Beef Cattle Show on Monday.
· The official classifier(s) for the Jr. Steer Show will review any questionable animals pertaining to the class or breed before entering show arena. If sifted, the animal may show in one of the crossbred classes determined by the official classifier(s).

· All owners of property and livestock shall care for, guard, protect and preserve same as the North Texas State Fair does not undertake to do so, and it shall not be responsible for any loss or damage to said property or the Owners there of.

· Exhibitors will not be allowed to spend the night on the grounds. Night watchmen will be on duty during these hours.

· Any animal or animals properly entered in any show class as eligible for competition must be brought into the arena for exhibition, unless the reason for their nonappearance in the ring is acceptable to the superintendent in charge. All single breeding cattle and steers for exhibition must be shown with a halter and be sufficiently gentle to be properly handled by an attendant.

· There will be no “showing off the trailer”. All animals will be stalled.

· Inside show barns: Livestock exhibitors are permitted to display a sign over each animal advertising their own heard. All other forms of signs or advertising must be approved by livestock management, and they reserves the right to have objectionable signs removed. No sign which reflects in any way any commercial product may be placed over any champion, or any livestock exhibit.

· Exhibitors will park trailers only in designated areas. Towing will be enforced. A map to the designated trailer parking will be enclosed in each exhibitor’s packet, to be picked up in Livestock Office upon arrival. (Steer & Heifer trailers will be dropped at a specific location - not on fairgrounds)

· Designated Livestock Exhibitor Parking is located at the Northwest corner of fairgrounds. There will be shuttle carts to take you to the livestock barn, and back. If for any reason there is not a cart available, please let someone in the livestock office know, and they will radio for a cart to come pick you up and drop you off.

· Parking directly north of the livestock barn is reserved parking only, and towing will be strictly enforced.

· No outside tie outs or trailer tie outs.

· All animals must remain in stalls.

· Exhibitors will enter the fairgrounds at the North gate (Carroll Blvd.) and unload on the North end of the livestock barn. There is a 15 minute time limit for unloading. Please do not leave vehicles unattended.

· All waste will be put in the commercial waste containers located at the North end of the livestock barn. Violators will be released and removed from the grounds.

· All Breed Champions, in all livestock categories, must compete for champion and reserve champion.

· All Beef Cattle Shows – Blow & Show. No glue, adhesives, paint, etc.

· DISORDERLY CONDUCT WILL NOT BE TOLERATED.

· All decisions of the Superintendent will be final, and abuse (verbal or otherwise) towards division Superintendents, Assistant Superintendents, or Judges, may be cause for the exhibitors and family to be removed from the Fairgrounds, and not allowed back.
In any TJLA Official Showmanship show, you must be a member of the TJLA to be eligible to enter or compete. YOU MAY OBTAIN MEMBERSHIP PRIOR TO THE SHOWMANSHIP SHOW IN THE LIVESTOCK OFFICE.

In any official showmanship show, you must show your own animal.

Campers/Trailers: No RV Trailers Allowed on Grounds.

Livestock Photography

The official Livestock Photographer for the North Texas State Fair will be Parker Photography. 972-442-1070.

They will be taking photos of any exhibitor that would like their picture made and all winners. Arrangements should be made with the photographer for purchase of individual photographs.

A photo area will be set up in the barns for photography purposes and exhibitors may not use this area for seating or storing of equipment.
Show in One (1) Ring w/ Three (3) Judges, + Combination Score.

Exhibitor are required to enter all Judges & Comb. Scores offered in their particular species.

Exhibitor will be given an Entry number (for each animal entered) when they check in, and must wear that number into the ring when that animal is being judged.

Each of the judges will have an opportunity to see animal from all the views that judges normally do: Front, back, profile, on the move. Any judge who wishes to request that the animals class be viewed again in a certain format or wants to see the animal walk again may do so.

Each judge will score every animal in the class from first to last. All of the scores from each judge will be posted and the combination score will be posted.

There will be no breed or reserve breed points given for an individual judge’s score. Those points will be awarded in the Combination Score which is the total of Judge A, Judge B, and Judge C’s scores added together.

In Heifers & Steers, there will be a designated “Lead Judge” for each division. (American/British/Exotic)

Pigs, Lambs & Goats, there will be a designated “Lead Judge” in each Breed / Div. of these shows.

In case of a tie, the Lead Judge’s score will be the tie breaker.

The North Texas Fair will have a large monitor that will list every judges’ score from first to last in the class and then the Combination Score.

The exhibitor whose combination score is the smallest number will be declared winner of the class or of the breed. The same will be done for the Grand Champion Drive.

In this case

The designated Lead Judge is Judge A.

When tie occurs, the Lead Judges’ score rules.

Note: Exhibitor still receives his points for A, B, C and the final placing.)
2017 Livestock Judges

Selection of Judges:

- Judges will be selected by the North Texas Fair and Rodeo, and in every case, the judge will be selected with the utmost care, and highest qualifications.
- The decisions of the judges will be final in all cases, except where mistake, fraud, misrepresentation or collusion, not discovered at the time of award, is proven. In such cases the management or such referee as he may appoint, may make a decision, or the case may be referred to the Executive Committee, from whose decision there can be no appeal.
- If any exhibitors, in any way, whether in person or by agent or servants, interferes with the judges during the adjudication, or shows and disrespect to them or the show, the management may demand a proper apology from such exhibitor, or it may exclude him or her from the ring, and may also withhold from such exhibitor to be barred from future participation in the North Texas Fair.
